Notary Public in and for the State of Texas / Authorized Officer

PLEASE NOTE: One affidavit is required for each instructor who actually teaches a student in each phase of the course. If there is more than one instructor, this form may be photocopied for use by the second instructor. If both instructors are not able to accompany the student when applying for an Instruction Permit, the affidavit for the absent instructor will need to be notarized prior to appearing in the Driver License Office. The document(s) must be presented when the student applies for an Instruction Permit. Definition of a qualified instructor can be found on page VIII of the instruction packet.
